The Seasoned Spoon is Hiring!

The Seasoned Spoon is a not-for-profit cooperative café that serves locally grown, organic food at Trent University. We're looking to hire a TWSP eligible student to be a baker and prep cook in our café. This is a self-directed position, and so we are particularly looking for someone who is punctual, reliable, organized, and possesses strong communication skills. Our staff work on average 6 hours/week while classes are in session. Application Deadline: Sunday, October 17th.

Our ideal candidate:

1. Is responsible for assisting with all day-to-day operations of the café, including opening and closing procedures, operating the cash register, serving food, customer service, food preparation, adhering to safe food handling procedures, washing dishes and general cleaning and café upkeep.
2. Has the ability to receive and follow through on instructions.
3. Ensures a quality product by following set recipes and/or cooking techniques.
4. Takes initiative and works well with others.
5. Has good attention to detail and the ability to keep a clean workspace.
6. Maintains good communication with the Spoon Director, Kitchen Manager and other staff.
7. Is responsible for menu planning, costing, and keeping track of baking inventory.

Skills and Qualifications:

1. Experience working in a fast-paced environment.
2. Experience cooking & baking seasonal, vegetarian, gluten-free food.
3. Knowledge of Seasoned Spoon mandate and structure an asset.
4. Food Handlers Certificate (or willingness to obtain prior to beginning work).
5. Punctual, reliable, organized, and possessing strong communication skills.
6. Self-directed.
7. The ability to work harmoniously as part of a large team.
